TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world." This line, the has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAILWAY,

It is possitively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleepin Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

The "St. Louis & Southeastern"

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your moyables on application, in person or by letter, to CHARLES MCCABE, Southern Passenger Agent, near College street Depot, Nashville, Tenn., or to the undersigned.

W B DAVENPORT,
General Ticket Agent, St. Louis.

The Evening Post.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Monday, September 8th, 1873.

The State Fair.

THE POST has advocated this institution in and out of season, not only in its editorial columns, but by gratuitous advertising. It has done this because it is in favor of any and all movements calculated to benefit the farming community. Nor is this particularly patriotic, or without selfish ends. With increased prosperity among the tillers of the soil, comes profit to all classes of people. They are the foundation of our system of industry, and for North Carolina's prosperity the interests of the farmers must be primarily considered.

We have always supposed the management to be strictly impartial as to its appointments, in regard to the political opinions of the members of the various committees and managers selected generally, and hope we shall continue to believe so, and not that it is a vast political machine.

When the Hon. Dan. Voorhees, of Indiana, was chosen to deliver the address, we for the time being forgot his old time copperhead proclivities, and spoke only of his eloquence. The orator must be selected from one of the great political parties of the land, and we had no objection to the choice. The praise bestowed upon him, however, by some of the Democratic papers in this State, is, to our mind, out of place in this connection, and if he is as wise as we believe him to be, he will carefully eschew all political allusions while in Raleigh.

The State Agricultural Journal copies an article from the Charlotte Observer in relation to the Fair, in which the following occurs:

"The Managers of the Fair are particularly fortunate in the selection of an orator to deliver the Annual Address. Their choice fell upon Hon. D. W. Voorhees, of Indiana. Mr. Voorhees is one of the most brilliant orators of the present age. He has a natural reputation for his splendid powers as a public speaker. He, perhaps, more than any other member of Congress, has endeared himself to the Southern people by his bold and manly course in defence of our rights. More than once he has in the halls of Congress, with thrilling eloquence, portrayed the evils that have followed reconstruction, and nobly plead for our rights."

We do not believe Mr. Voorhees was chosen because of his peculiar "Southern" views, for if we did we should labor as hard against the Fair as we are now laboring for it; but we think the publication of that sort of praise is in exceedingly bad taste, to say the least.

We are no admirer of Dan. Voorhees, but we are willing to hear him tell what he knows about farming, now that the war is over. When the war was going on, and the South was sacrificing every man and every dollar in the struggle, Dan. should have come down here and helped the men he loved so well. That is what we would have done. We like to know that a man risked his life in the defense of his honest convictions, and then we can respect him. But our orator did not see it in that light.—There is no danger now, and buncombe speeches are made in Congress as well as in the Legislature of our own State, as Mr. Voorhees well knows.

Let him come down here and talk to the people, and not to a political party, and all will be well. Let him give us a political harangue, and the days of the State Fair will be numbered.

SEA-SIDE RIPPLES.

Saratoga Springs is to have two horse railroads next summer.

Over five hundred visitors arrived at Saratoga Springs on Tuesday last.

The Union Hotel is the headquarters of all the democratic politicians that visit Saratoga Springs.

Governor Sprague, of Rhode Island, was among the first who erected cottages at Martha's Vineyard.

There are 354 cottages for Summer residents at Oak Bluffs, Martha's Vineyard, and eight first class hotels.

The breaking up of the encampment of the cadets will be celebrated at West Point on the 28th inst. by a grand hop.

Several Brooklyn gentlemen have bought lots on Spring avenue, near the Excelsior Springs, at Saratoga, for the purpose of erecting cottages.

Rev. Matthew Hale Smith is at the Union Hotel, Saratoga. Mr. Smith has given up sensational preaching and become a newspaper correspondent.

"Have you Goldsmith's Greece," was asked of the clerk in a store in which books and various miscellaneous articles were sold. "No," said the clerk, reflectively, "we haven't 'Goldsmith's Greece," but we have sone splendid hair oil."

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

— The Pope is again indisposed.

— Valencia has been declared in a state of seige.

— The American citizens resident in Paris on Thursday last proposed to display the United States flag in honor of the proclamation of the Republic, but the Prefect objected strongly, and they abandoned the idea.

— The installation of Disraeli as rector of the University of Glasgow, which was postponed in consequence of the death of his wife, will take place on the 19th of November.

— The French Minister of the Interior has issued an order prohibiting the publication of the radical journal Le Peuple Souveran, because of the appearance in its columns of articles inciting to disturbances and contempt of government.

— The annual dinner of the master cutlers of Sheffield took place in that city Thursday. The Right Honorable Robert Lowe, who was one of the guests, in response to a toast defended the policy of Gladstone's government and expressed confidence in the future of the Liberals.

— The last installment of the payment of the Geneva award was made Friday. The gold was deposited in the money office in New York at noon and the certificates duly issued by the United States Treasurer in the names of the bankers representing the contractors for the British government.

— A Herald special dated Swatow 5th says, the mail steamer Madias from Hong Kong for Yokohama struck off Three Chimney Heads to-day and leaked so badly that she had to be beached here. The cargo was slightly damaged. The mail, specie and passengers will be transhipped.

— F. Moran and J. E. Colburn, artists with the Powell exploring expedition, arrived at Salt Lake from Colorado river Friday morning. Maj. Powell is now devoting himself to the affairs of the Indian bureau, and has gone to Muddy Valley, with Mr. Ingalls, Indian agent, to arrange for the reception of the Piutes on their reservation.

— The grand jury of the Criminal Court of Chicago have found a bill of indictment for manslaughter against Puffenberger and Bean, engineer and conductor of the freight train, which caused the collision at Lemont, on the Chicago and Alton railroad. It would be well if other grand juries would do likewise.

The Orphan Asylum, at Oxford, is doing a work never before attempted in our State. It is feeding, clothing and teaching a large number of indigent orphans. The most needy are the most welcome. All political parties, benevolent societies and religious denominations are treated with impartial courtesy and kindness. The co-operation of every class of people is earnestly solicited. Good food, comfortable clothing, plain furniture and efficient teachers are indispensible, but unavoidably expensive. Any contributor may examine the books to see if the amounts contributed are judiciously expended.—The approaching winter will increase the current expenses. But even now many applicants are held in suspense, because the funds in hand do not justify their admission. The days of their youth are swiftly gliding by, and their opportunities of improvement are escaping forever. A few months of faithful instruction will enable them to read the laws of God, and understand their relations to men. If the prosperous will contribute according to their prosperity, if ministers and other public speakers will lay the fact before the people and forward their offerings, if Masonic Lodges and other benevolent societies will illustrate their principles in works of charity, one hundred additional orphans can be received at once. Direct donations are better than schemes to collect money out of others. The Asylum does not need any "axes to grind." The cause carries its own appeal to every heart that beats with human sympathy. Do not ask the Lord to move others to do what is required of you; but let your prayers follow (not go before) your alms. Contributions gratefully received by J. H. Mills, of Raleigh, and A. D. Cohen, of Oxford

The session of the Presbyterian Church, in Rockingham, deeply grateful to the Giver of all good, especially for his favor in putting it into the hearts of his people to build this house to the honor of His name, take this occasion to express their gratitude to those who have aided in erecting it, and hope that through His continued favor the same liberality will be extended to the entire completion of the same.

We cannot let this opportunity pass without expressing our gratitude to our brethren of the Methodist Church in this place for the kind and fraternal Christian courtesy shown us in the continued use of their house of worship to the present time.—Spirit of the South.

The Raleigh News, of 6th inst., says: The old post office arrived in its place yesterday evening. Smith, the house movist, in transferring this building from one spot to another, without disarranging the chimneys or requiring a cessation of the work of the office, adds another feather to his cap of mechanical ingenuity.

The identical opera glass which Captain John Smith had in his pocket when Powhattan was going to mash him, has been sent to this office for exhibition.—Detroit Free Press.

NO AMOUNT OF MECHANICAL INGENUITY would account by itself for the popularity of Mr. Collins' works. OTTO SCHUTZE, Observer, U. S. A.

For the present delightful weather continues, we shall soon see many of our citizens returning.

REV. MR. HIDEN will be absent from the city for about a month, during which time, we understand, there will be preaching in the Baptist Church.

PROMPT.—Register Hill settled his schedule C tax to-day with the Sheriff. The law requires settlement on the second Monday of September, and he was in time. Good for Hill.

We believe every builder in the city says all he can do now, as well as all the mechanics. We never saw greater activity in building circles in this city, and rejoice thereat.

We understand that the Fire Department will be ordered out for inspection and drill to-morrow. We are a believer in good discipline and appearances, and expect to brag over our Department always.

FOR the convenience of our merchants and others, Col. Brink, our efficient postmaster, has mail matter sent to Goldsboro' on the afternoon train, which has heretofore only carried through mails. This will prove a great convenience to those having business correspondence in Goldsboro'.

MR. P. HEINSBERGER has laid upon our table, with the compliments of Messrs. T. B. Peterson & Bro., of Philadelphia, a copy of "Miss or Mrs? and other stories, by Wilkie Collins." This author is justly popular, and his works are read with great interest. This cheap edition will command a ready sale in this vicinity. See Heinsberger's advertisement in another column.

YESTERDAY was a pleasant day, cloudy and quite comfortable, and, as a consequence, the Church services were quite well attended. But a few families have as yet returned, but the cooler weather we are now enjoying will have the effect of bringing them back, if it continues. It being the first Sabbath in the month, most of them had the communion services also, which had the effect of increasing the attendance.

Rev. Dr. Watson officiated at St. James and Mr. Patterson at St. John's Churches. Elder Hiden preached at the Baptist Church, Dr. Bernheim at the Lutheran and Dr. Moran at the Front Street Methodist Church. Mr. Ambler preached morning and evening at St. Paul's Church. The First Presbyterian is still closed for repairs and improvements. Father Gross officiated at St. Thomas' Church. The evening was cool and those churches having night services had many attentive listeners.

ANOTHER CASE OF LARCENY.—This morning Mr. J. F. Fleet had occasion to use one of his blocks and tackles and sent his stevedore to his stables to find it. The messenger returned, stating that it was not in the stables.—Mr. Fleet thinking that he had not searched carefully enough, sent him back to look more thoroughly, and again the stevedore returned without the block, stating that it was not to be found. During Mr. Fleet's sickness several blocks and valuable pieces of ropes were carried off, and the stevedore, in whose charge the things were, was very much exercised to find out the person who was afflicted with the contagious disease of kleptomania, and this morning when the block was missing he instituted a rigid search among the junk shops, where he found the missing block. Mr. Gillican, the proprietor of the shop where the block was found, willingly described the person who brought it, and he, by the way, has been the means of the capture of several thieves. Alexander Martin, who has been in the employ of Mr. Fleet for a number of years, answered Mr. Gillican's description, and he was carried up and identified by Mr. G. as the person who brought him the block. Martin confessed to having stolen the block. He was lodged in the guard-house, and will have a hearing to-morrow.

THE TOWN CRIER.

— Mild.

— Mosquitoes.

— Gold is 112½.

— Pave Front street.

— Churches well filled yesterday.

— The popularity of the POST increaseth.

— Sabbath day was unusually delightful.

— This Northeast wind will hurry up the vessels.

— Subscribers will please notify us if the POST is not delivered regularly.

— The little steamer "Dixie" was at the wharf in Beaufort Saturday morning.

— Notice the change of schedule on the Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta Railroad.

— Persons desiring to rent a store or purchase a fine lot, will call upon Cronly & Morris.

— R. S. Waldron has returned from his long visit in Chicago. He is as blooming as ever.

— It is said that powdered borax, scattered about, will drive away roaches. We want a few pounds.

Mayor's Court.

His Honor W. P. CANADAY, Mayor, presiding.

Benj. Burt and Joe Brownson, charged with allowing persons to be playing in their saloon on Sunday. Judgment suspended until to-morrow morning.

Saturday Night Sketches.

See,
The moon is up, it is the dawn of night;
Stands by her side one bold, bright, steady star;
Star of her heart, and heir to all her light,
Wherever she looks so proudly, mild and calm,
As though she were the mother of that star."

And the fish carts were filled with their silvery-sided freight, for a brief period, and all was silent there! At least the carts were all gone, and 'most everybody had their fish for Sunday's breakfast. The monotony to-night was varied by the thousands of slips upon the thousands of grape skins on the side-walks. We fear that explosive epithets were often used, but that didn't clear the side-walks. The days are getting so short, that Saturday night comes early, and the traffic has almost ceased by nine o'clock. And the articles offered have also changed. "Here's yer fat rice birds," shouts a youthful Nimrod, seated upon the walk with his dozens of fat, delicious little luxuries. "Only twenty-five cents a dozen," and they disappeared rapidly, until he rises from his hnmble counter, replenished with the wherewith to purchase his own supplies. The melons are fast going from market, and indeed from fashion, but one old blind man tottered along with as large a one as his aged arms could hold, slowly feeling his way with his stick. On either side of him was a little urchin, struggling with his basket load of life's necessities, one little hand of each grasping the clothing of the old man, cheerfully bearing their share of the heavy burdens. that the melon may get safely home. What is the bright moonlight to him? What cares he for light or darkness? All are alike to him. He feels his way amid the busy throng and bright lights with the same care as along the deeply shaded walks, with his face toward that portion of the busy world to which his heart responsiye throbs—his home. And the crowd dashes by and gives the toiling trio room until they pass away into the darkness, and are forgotten.

"Mister, give me a fifteen cent cigar, the best you have got," says a bright looking colored man at one of the cigar stands on Front street. Now we cannot afford such costly luxuries, and with the impudence for which reporters are noted, we venture to observe, "Can you stand this sort of a thing often?" "Oh, no, sir," he good humoredly replies, "I only buy one about once a month." The pure Havana is laid out for his inspection, and is very critically examined. Not a flaw can be seen. "Will they smoke good?" "Oh yes, you'll be satisfied." The money is produced, and the fragrant weed, doubly sweet because of the long self-denial, is lighted to end in smoke. For a half hour the joys of Elysium are his, and not until the last whiff has been thoroughly enjoyed, and the remaining half inch saved to fill a pipe on some future occasion, will our luxurious friend come down to the sober realities of life.

A ray of comfort, where all before was gloom, glided into one household as the darkness gathered its folds about the city, when a mother clasped her boy to her bosom after weary weeks of waiting for the jail to open its grated doors. Though the future is still dark, and the boy is to appear on a trial for the terrible crime of murder. little Billy Merrick's mother thanked God that the writ of Habeas Corpus, the advance guard of all our liberties, was not snspended or annulled. And again the Saturday night passes in that household as of old, though the sorrow and gloom of the approaching trial is shadowed on their hearts.

How rapidly the time flies!

"Behold the World
Rests, and her tir'd inhabitants have paus'd
From trouble and turmoil. The widow now
Has ceased to weep, and her twin-orphans lie
Lock'd in each arm, partakers of her rest.
The man of sorrow has forgot his woes;
The outcast that his head is shelterless,
His griefs unshar'd. The mother tends no more
Her daughter's dying slumbers, but surpris'd
With heaviness, and sunk upon her couch,
Dreams of her bridals. Even the hectic lull'd
On death's lean arm to rest, in visions wrapt,
Crowning with hope's bland wreath his shuddering nurse,
Poor victim! smiles.—Silence and deep repose
Reign o'er the nations; and the warning voice
Of nature utters audibly within
The general moral;—tells us that repose,
Death-like as this, but of far longer pain,
Is coming on us—that the weary crowd,
Who now enjoy a temporary calm,
Shall soon taste lasting quiet wrapt around
With grave-clothes; and their aching, restless heads
Mouldering in holes and corners unobserved
'Till the last trump shall break their sullen sleep."

STATE ITEMS.

New-Berne has received another hundred thousand postereal keerds, and correspondents are happy.

The oyster season has opened in New-Berne, and physicians are anticipating an increase of business.

Salisbury wants to supply all the country from Richmond to Atlanta with little onions, raised from the seed.

A colored man named John McKenzie dropped dead in church near Rockingham on Sunday of last week.

The wife of Daniel Bendist, of Rockingham county, has become insane, and has made several attempts to kill her children.

A young man named Augustus Isler, aged 17 years, accidentally shot himself to death in Jones county, on Saturday before last.

The first steamer of a new line just established between New-Berne and Norfolk, arrived at the former place on Wednesday.

Last week, during a thunder storm in Salisbury, the kitchen of Mr. Parker was struck by lightning, severely stunning his cook, a colored woman, who is rapidly recovering from it.

The State Agricultural Journal drapes one of its pages in mourning in respect to the memory of Hon. D. M. Barringer, who was one of the Vice Presidents of the State Agricultural Society.

The Asheville Pioneer has received a private letter from Webster, Jackson county, which states that on Sunday night, the 31st ult., the jail at that place was broken into by a band of ruffians, and Ayers Jones, charged with rape, and John Bryson, charged with violating the U. S. Internal Revenue Laws, set at liberty. The parties also carried away two stills which had been seized by the U. S. officers.

We learn from passengers that left Beaufort on Saturday morning, that just before the starting of the train from Morehead City on that day, a white woman, (whose name our informant did not learn,) who had her baby in her arms, feeling badly, passed the child to its nurse, and, in attempting to move, fell from her chair and died instantly. We also learn from the same source, that as the train arrived at Kinston that day, a colored woman (supposed to be insane) was being carried to jail, strongly bound, she having just killed her young child by dashing its brains out.

John A. Ketchey, the notorious scoundrel, now in jail at Salisbury under sentence of death for the crime of rape, don't like being called a horse thief, and thinks that the person who circulated the report that he had a natural propensity for taking fine horses, did it "in order to prejudice the minds of those who might give room in their sensorium cavity for such a horse lie, for in de facto it is such." And the much injured Mr. Ketchey then says to the Salisbury Watchman man, dating his note from the county jail: "Mr. Reporter, God demands justice of you, to a fellow prisoner, justice and humanity to man requires the same, if you would render unto Cæsar the things which are due him. Confess, and correct your error for John."

IT IS STRANGE what trifles will annoy some people. The case of Arthur Austin, aged eighteen, of Fall Grove, Tenn., reported by the Nashville papers, is an illustration. He got tired of seeing his drunken father snap caps at him with a loaded revolver, and, languidly picking up a shot gun, he put an end simultaneously to the annoyance and to the old man.

LATEST NEWS,

AND LOCAL.

It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

RELIABLE INTELLIGENCE,

THE POST

is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an

Advertising Medium

it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city. Politically the POST is UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicisitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.

THE EVENING POST

is closely identified with the local welfare of the Cape Fear region, and the believers in progress, whether

EDUCATIONAL,
AGRICULTURAL,
MECHANICAL, or COMMERCIAL,

will find an enthusiastic ally in THE POST.

THE POST

is opposed to monopolics, but in favor of internal improvements, and a firm believer in the patronage and support of home enterprises and institutions.

AS A FAMILY PAPER,

The TIMES will have no superior; it will be free from all appeals to vulgar and impure tastes, and may be safely admitted to every domestic circle.

AS A REPUBLICAN JOURNAL,

The TIMES will be devoted, as in the past, to an intelligent and firm support of the Republican Party. Its course in reference to the Tammany Ring, at a time when all the other daily papers in New York obstructed and discouraged its efforts, attests its sincerity in the cause of Reform. The TIMES stood alone in demanding Reform from 1869 to the close of 1871, and there is no sincere and honest proposal for Reform, in any branch of the Government, which will not be heartily supported by the TIMES. But it will not conspire in assisting ambitious politicians or demagogues to reach power under false pretenses. It will not encourage defection from the Republican Party, which is still the party of progress, security and national prosperity.

It will sustain, with all the force and influence at its command, the principles and policy which have rendered that party so justly famous in our history. It will advocate those measures by which the honor, the peace, and the prosperity of the nation can be best secured and promoted, and will constantly study the wants of the people rather than the wishes of the politicians.

THE NEW YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES

Is published every Tuesday and Friday, and contains all the agricultural and literary matter of the Weekly edition, and a full and careful compilation of editorial and news features of the Daily.

Terms of the Semi-Weekly TIMES: One copy, one year, $3; two copies, one year, $5; ten copies, one year, $25—and one extra copy free.

We especially call the attention to the following testimonials of the Paint:

C. P. Knight, Esq.—Dear Sir: I have used Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on my dwelling last Spring, and am much pleased with it, and it looks as well now as when first painted, and consider it a good Paint. Yours, truly,
Creswell P. O., Hartford county, Md., Feb. 6th, 1873. A. H. STRASBAUGH.

THE PLAINS, FAUQUIER CO., VA., Feb. 6th, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Sir: The Paint came safely to hand as ordered—two kegs, five gallons each, and three buckets, one gallon each. As practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks, (not constant work,) completed the house two coats. The last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that for enamel-like hardness, and body, and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place. I saved sixty-five dollars by the operation, which is an item just now with Southern people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabbled in such stock as testimonials, but I feel so forcibly the great adaptability of your "Enamel Paint" to the wants of our people, in excellency of material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of its being "ready mixed" that I give you free permission, (if it is desirable to you,) to make what use you think proper of this letter.

Very respectfully and truly,
S. McGILL, M. D.

TO THE PUBLIC—It affords me much pleasure to state that in July, 1871, Front Street Theatre was painted inside and out with "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint," for which C. P. Knight, No. 93 West Lombard Street, is agent, and, to testify to its superiority over any and all other paints for similar uses. In no private dwelling can paint possibly be subjected to the very severe test it undergoes at this establishment, where, during our daily cleaning, soap and soda are constantly applied to it, and yet it appears as sound and fresh as when put on. Of the numerous advantages it possesses over other paints, I will only mention its being mixed and ready for use in quantities to suit purchasers, its quickly drying properties, which saves much time in the execution of work were paint is needed, and its very perceptible tenacity, which imparts beauty and durability to the objects on which it is used. As such I most earnestly recommend it to the merchants and tradesmen of our city, believing it will give them greater satisfaction than they can possibly anticipate.

WM. E. SINN,
Front Street Theatre.

BALTIMORE, April 25, 1873.

CHAMBERSBURG, December 10th, 1872.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—The paints we received from you have been applied to several of our own buildings and to those of our friends, and have given entire satisfaction in covering qualities, in gloss, and in adaptability to all kinds of surface of material and we cheerfully recommend it, especially to that class of consumers who have to depend upon unknown parties, or painters to mix and furnish materials, wherein we have found the most deception.

Yours, truly,
JACOB STOUFFER & SON.

FROM HON. JOHN WETHERED.

Mr. C. P. Knight:—At the recommendation of a friend, I was induced to apply your patent "Bradley's" paint to my house. I have pleasure in stating that it has proved highly satisfactory, covering more surface than you promised, is more economical, carries better gloss than ordinary paint, and is freer from disagreeable odor.

Yours, Respectfully,
JOHN WETHERED.

BALTIMORE, December 27th, 1871.

C. P. Knight, Esq., Agent for Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint—Dear Sir:—The paint we purchased from you we will cheefully endorse as the best of any kind we have ever used; its covering qualities is everything desired, drying promptly and with a hard gloss which must, we think, resist the action of all kinds of weather. This is our experience, and we can recommend it with certainty, and intend to use it on all occasions where we desire a good job of work.

Very Respectfully,
EMART & QUARTLEY, 270 W. Baltimore St.
House, Sign and Frescoe Painters.

PLEASANTVILLE, HARTFORD CO., MD.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—I am very happy to inform you that your "Patent Enamel Paint" has given entire satisfaction. I prefer it to any paint I have ever seen used, and recommend it for durability and beauty as paramount to any other.

Very Respetfully,
R. DICKEY, M. D.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly, proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs.—Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.
